He also represents individuals and corporations in transactional matters, and before state and federal administrative and regulatory agencies.

In 2000, he was voted one of the Top 40 Illinois Attorneys Under the Age of 40. This is especially notable, as there are approximately 60,000 attorneys under the age of forty in Illinois.

In 2003, the Illinois Supreme Court appointed Mr. Zimmerman to the Review Board of the Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission. In that capacity, he presides over appeals by attorneys who have been found to have committed misconduct, and imposes discipline for their ethical violations.

Mr. Zimmerman is admitted to practice law in Illinois, and other states on a case-by-case basis, and he is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, federal district courts and federal court of appeals. Based on his demonstrated experience and ability, he was appointed to the federal court trial bar.

Prior to becoming an attorney, Mr. Zimmerman worked for AT&T where he negotiated partnerships with companies for domestic and international joint-venture and new product development activities. During this time, he was the featured speaker at 400 conferences, seminars and presentations. Thereafter, he presented oral testimony at various Federal Senate and Congressional hearings.

He earned a B.S. in computer science-mathematics from the University of Illinois, and an M.B.A. in finance from DePaul University in the evenings while working for AT&T.

After leaving AT&T, Mr. Zimmerman earned his law degree from the Chicago-Kent College of Law, where he was a Ramsey-Burke Scholarship recipient. In law school, he earned the Academic Achievement Award based upon his outstanding grades.

Mr. Zimmerman has been lead counsel in national and state-wide class action litigation, and has handled other multi-party litigation involving such companies as MCI/Worldcom, United Airlines, People's Gas, AT&T, Warner-Lambert, Pfizer, DaimlerChrysler, Commonwealth Edison, Ameritech, Bridgestone/Firestone, as well as others. He has earned high regard in his representation of physicians, dentists, nurses, psychologists, veterinarians, and many other licensed professionals before the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, and other state and federal agencies.

Mr. Zimmerman is currently the chair of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County Attorney Advisory Committee, and he was the co-chair of the Clerk of the Circuit Court Transition and Strategic Planning Public Policy Subcommittee. Mr. Zimmerman is a member of the Illinois State Bar, Chicago Bar, and Illinois Trial Lawyers Associations, where he serves on various committees. He is also a member of the American Association for Justice. In 2000, he was appointed to the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association Board of Advocates.

He is also involved in numerous community service activities. Since 1988, Mr. Zimmerman has been an Illinois State Board of Education surrogate parent of disabled children; he was a speaker on the rights of disabled people for the Illinois Planning Council on Developmental Disabilities; and he was a Family Shelter Service counselor to battered children for many years. He also was recognized by the federal court for his representation of indigent clients free of charge on pro bono cases.
